

Information Security Awareness Curriculum

COURSE

LESSON COUNT: 7

Corporate Security

LESSONS

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Introduction to corporate security

- Learners can define corporate security.
- Learners can describe why their role is paramount to corporate security.
- Learners can describe why corporate security is important.

Good habits in the workplace

- Learners can quote 5 good behaviors to adopt at their workplace.
- Learners can describe why it matters to adopt these behaviors.

Password security

- Learners can describe the characteristics of a good password.
- Learners can explain why it is important to respect these principles.

Responsible use of the internet

- Learners can explain what content is safe to access from their work computer.
- Learners can describe why some content is not safe to access from a work computer.
- Learners can give 3 examples of unacceptable use of corporate assets.

Physical security

- Learners can describe 4 ways of breaching physical security.
- Learners can describe 4 good habits to prevent these physical attacks.

Insider threats

- Learners can define an insider threat.
- Learners can explain the impact of insider threats.
- Learners can name 3 incentives leading to insider threats.
- Learners can identify signs of insider threats.

Reporting a security incident

- Learners can explain why it is important that they report incidents.
- Learners can explain their role in corporate security in relation to Prevention, Detection, and Response.